Dear Friends,

PLEASE NOTE THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION.

The Senior Center will not open for classes until Monday August 4th. Kay, Pat and I are in the office but it is taking more time to make the facilities acceptable and safe. Phone calls and visits are welcome if you need medical equipment, copying or need to drop off items etc. but classes will be postponed until August 4th.

The Easton Senior Center would very much like to mention Gus Valakes, Painter & Decorator from Naugatuck who volunteered to paint our Van Garage next to the EMS Building, without charge, during the time he was painting the EMS facilities. Kudos to this, another member of the Easton Senior Center Family. We couldn't manage without you!!

A very special hug for all the members of Operation Respect who have now completed their project and who donated remaining funds to the Easton Senior Center. As a result of this donation we have just completed an order for many different PBS Series that can be viewed in the coming months and borrowed from our DVD Library.

The "new" Easton Senior Center is really progressing well. The new roof has been completed and the new ceilings are being constructed. Walls and new doorways are being put in place and in general the project is really taking shape. I cannot praise the Building committee members enough for their incredible efforts on our behalf. If you can take a moment to call the Chairman, John Bromer, Secretary, Foster McKeon, Rocky Sullivan and Joseph Schettino and express your thanks it would be great! They are often on site in the early hours of the morning, or late at night after a long day at work at their normal employment! To us they are very special folks!

Don't forget to sign up for any August activities, everything will be back to normal for a while by the second week of August. We miss seeing everyone!

Thought you may like the saying written below. I copied it from the Nova Scotia Museum of Industry in Stellarton, Nova Scotia on our recent Senior Trip.

Have great August! Val
